

FIGURE 5. The interaction of a predator and its prey where the predator is unable to eat the prey at every prey density. Isoclines, coordinates, and markings as in figure 1. In this case, growing oscillations do not necessarily grow until one or both species becomes extinct, for a limiting oscillation may be reached.